The Book of Kells

folio 34r, Chi Rho page

The Chi Rho page is the most celebrated image in the Book of Kells. The words Christi autem generatio open the narrative of Matthew's gospel with the name of Christ in its abbreviated Greek form (Chi Rho) occupying the whole height of the page. The Chi forms a cross shape. The page is filled with visual reminders of the eucharistic sacrifice and resurrection of Christ.
